

NOTICE:

Given the scale of port expansion projects, and the many concepts involved in them, the participation of investors may be given in various ways such as:

- Port Operators with it's own financial resources on the project.
- Participation on Private Public Partnerships projects.
- Participation as a private company with long-term lease of land and facilities that are owned by the Port Administration (API), such as the logistic area of the Port which include activities like storage and packaging.

1. Veracruz Port Expansion Project

- It's the largest port in Mexico.
- It handles 20 million tons per year.
- It has reached it's maximum capacity.

Description:

- It's operations will increase to 95 million tons per year.
- The berth posts will increase from 18 to 53.
- Construction of a new logistics area that will also serve for customs authority.
- New specialized terminals

Participants:

Federal and State Government

Investment $4.5 billion usd

City: Veracruz

PRO MÉXICO Inversión y Comercio

Veracruz Port Expansion Project

2. Tuxpan Port Expansion Project

- It's the closest port to Mexico City.
- Port's Logistics has been reconfigured for different industries (automobiles and bulk grains).
- It's the main access to fuel imports in Mexico.
- It handles up to 12 million tons per year.

Description:

- New Container Terminal
- New Maritime Terminal for automobile cargo

Participants:

Federal and State Government

Investment $500 million usd

City: Tuxpan

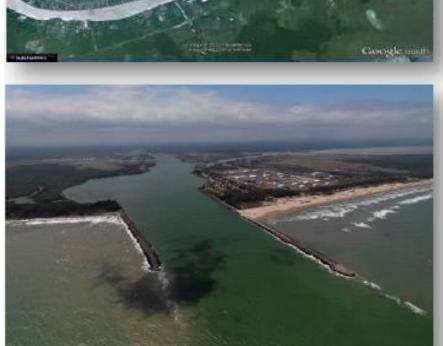

3. Coatzacoalcos Port Expansion Project

- It's close to the most important petrochemical cluster in Latin America.
- It's an industrial and commercial port.
- It handles 23 million tons per year.

Description:

- New Container Terminal.
- Facilities for the development of new investments in the petrochemical industry (storage).

Participants:

Federal and State Government

Investment $200 million usd

City:

Coatzacoalcos Port Expansion Project

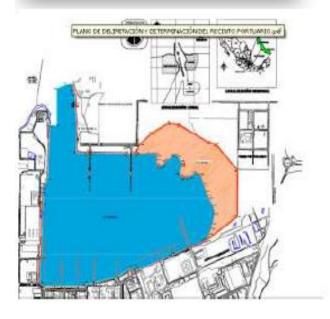

4. Alvarado Maritime Terminal Project

Description:

- New logistic facilities and wharfs in an area of 21 hectares.
- Three new wharfs for cargo handling cranes

Participants:

Federal and State Government

Investment $200 million usd

City: Alvarado

Alvarado Maritime Terminal Project

5. Santa Rita proposed site for industrial park construction

Facilities:

- 244 hectares
- Connection to major highways and railroads
- Natural gas
- Underground water supply
- Medium and high electricity voltage

Participants:

State Government

City:

Veracruz

6. Las Golondrinas proposed site for industrial park construction

Facilities:

- 78 hectares
- Connection to major highways and railroads
- Basic services viability
- Natural gas
- Veracruz port distance: 23 km
- Medium and high electricity voltage

Participants:

State Government

City:

Veracruz

7. "Roque Ávalos (Rancho el 34)" proposed site for industrial park construction

Facilities:

- Access through Highway #180 Coatzacoalcos-Villahermosa
- Access to water services
- Close to High Education Schools and other services

Participants:

State Government

City:

8. "Jose Antonio Hernandez" proposed site for industrial park construction

Facilities:

- Access through Highway #180 Coatzacoalcos-Villahermosa
- Access to water and electricity services
- Close to High Education Schools and other services

Participants:

State Government

City:

9. Proposed site for Agro industrial park construction

Facilities:

- Access through Highway #180 Coatzacoalcos-Villahermosa
- Access to water and electricity services
- Close to High Education Schools and other services

Participants:

State Government

City:

